

Developing women and PrEP programmes - learnings from the MobPrESH project

Recruitment

 Prepster
Published by Zju Zina [?] · 23 August · 🌐

We're looking for (self-identifying) women to mobilise in their communities!
Our fourth & final capacity building training coming up in London is on 21st and 22nd September.

Check here for details - <http://prepster.info/mobpresh/>

#sexualhealth #transhealth #reproductivejustice
#blackwomenshealthmatters #PrEP4Women

 Tweet

 yorkshire mesmac
@yorkshiresmesmac

Are you a self-defining woman or non-binary femme presenting person, living in Yorkshire and looking for a volunteering opportunity?

We're working with @Prepster to deliver #MobPrESH, and we'll be recruiting on 8th/9th June. Get in touch to find out more! 🙌

Are you a self-defining woman or non-binary femme presenting person, living in Yorkshire?

Training

- HIV & key populations
- PrEP (use, IMPACT trial in England,
- Prepster merchandise & how to share it
- Sexual health (STIs, contraception, consent, relationships)
- Creative facilitation

Activities

- Film screenings (Nothing Without Us – BW & HIV & PrEP)
- Prides (UK Black Pride, Bristol & Leeds Pride?)
- Carnivals (Bristol & Leeds carnivals)
- Zine making (collaging, poetry & writing)
- Black women's organisation (CJO)
- Muslim Forum of Britain (multiple workshops)
- Decolonising Contraception activities
- Bannermaking with Queer/Trans youth group for London Trans Pride
- Hairdressers event (Yorks)

Successes

- Reach
- PrEP messaging to new audiences
- People developed as leaders, community mobilisers
- Networks built
- Organisations' new capacities to deliver PrEP education
- Next generation of PrEP activists

